OCTOBER 2019

Vol. 19. No. 10

COORDINATORS CORNER

"A smile is the best thing you can put on your face." Christie Brinkley

Fall is officially upon us – cooler nights, shorter days and changing leaves. I hope you enjoy this season that seems filled with activity. There is plenty going on at the center to keep us all busy, so we look forward to seeing you!

Highlights

- Bird Month - A special thanks to Christine Napolitano for organizing "bird month". See page 3 for additional information.
- Artist Talk - Another member to thank is Leo Piovano who on Wednesday, October 9th will educate us on the Italian painter, Caravaggio.
- Columbus Day Celebration – On Saturday, October 12th, celebrate the anniversary of Italian explorer Christopher Columbus's arrival in the Americas.
- Casino Trip – Try your luck at the Wind Creek Casino on Tuesday, October 15.

In the recent past, we have had other members come forward and share their talents and interests at our Wednesday meetings. It is priceless when one of our own shares. I encourage anyone to talk to Michelle or myself if you want to share anything with the group.

There are other ways to contribute and share – call bingo one afternoon, join the Communications Crew one month to send out birthday greetings, assist in organizing a trip, or serve refreshments at a meeting. There are so many more opportunities. We can only offer activities if we have members help and volunteer. This "Club" is your club, so the more participation, the better!

THANK YOU...

- Professor S. Ananthakrishnan for his presentation about "The Sun and Our Solar System – the Mysteries and Excitement".
- Carol Brush from Horizon Blue Cross/Blue Shield for her presentation on "Healthy Fall Eating".
- Christine Napolitano who organized and the NPSCC members who set up and volunteered to help at the Country Western Picnic.
- Christine Niedzielski & Debbie Clark of Coldwell Banker in Summit for providing September's birthday cake!
- NPSCC members who brought friends to "Bring a Friend" Day.
- Rachel Zack for her valuable help and assistance over the summer.
- Do Kang for donating the new clock in the main room.

HELP WANTED

A vital part of our club needs your help now! Please contribute your talents so that we may continue the wonderful activities at the NPSCC. Some of our Activity Committee members have had to cut back on their participation. If you have ever considered running a trip or helping at an event, NOW is the time to step up.

You could help with one trip or event per year or contribute a special talent (i.e., booking entertainment) to several events. If your talent is baking, you could organize the baked goods table at an event. Or, you could speak to a restaurant manager to learn about their group rates. Any help would be appreciated. Please let us know how you would like to get involved.

BOOK REVIEW

by Therese Dalton

"What Once Was True: An Irish WW2 Story"

by Jean Grainger

This is the first book in a series. If you are looking for a distraction and a light read, this is for you. I enjoyed the characters and rooted for them. Amazon summarizes the book as follows:

The once grand house is home to two very different families. Despite delusions of grandeur, Lord and Lady Kenefick and their adult children, live a life of decayed opulence as the money needed to keep such a large house and grounds ever dwindles.

Meanwhile, the Murphy family, Dermot, Isabella and their three almost grown up girls, live and work on the estate and do their best to keep everything running smoothly.

Social structure is vital. Everyone knows their place, but as war looms, both families find themselves drawn into the conflict and begin questioning everything that once was true.

From the leafy grounds of an Irish stately home, to the bombed-out streets of London in the Blitz, allow yourself to be swept away in this historical saga.

~~HALLOWEEN~~ POEM

There's a goblin at my window,
A monster by my door.
The pumpkin at my table
Keeps on smiling more and more.
There's a ghost who haunts my bedroom.
A witch whose face is green.
They used to be my family,
Till they dressed for Halloween.
